Amsterdam, October 2026

Dear Prime Minister,

I am deeply concerned about the safety of journalist and human rights defender Kananelo Boloetse, who was abducted, assaulted and threatened with death on 5 September 2026 because of his work.

Although he reported the attack to the police, no arrests have been announced. This raises serious concerns about his ongoing safety and the protection of journalists and human rights defenders in Lesotho.

I urge you to ensure Kananelo Boloetse is protected from further threats and attacks and to order a prompt, independent and impartial investigation into the attack and bring those responsible to justice.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Prosecutor General,

The conviction of 19 Nagyz Atajurt members for participating in a peaceful protest raises serious concerns about the rights to freedom of expression and peaceful assembly.

There is also concern about the health of three imprisoned activists. Tursynbek Kabi suffers from severe hearing loss and chronic pain, Batyrbek Baigazy urgently needs eye surgery, and Yerbol Nurlybayev requires specialist treatment for a serious kidney disease.

I urge you to overturn the convictions of all 19 Atajurt members and immediately release those who remain imprisoned. Pending their release, I urge you they receive the medical care they urgently need.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Minister,

I am deeply concerned about human rights defender, photographer, videographer Filmon Gebrehiwot Hagos, who disappeared Adihawusi, Mekelle, Tigray on 10 August 2025. There have been no confirmed sightings of him since. His fate and whereabouts remain unknown.

There are serious concerns that Filmon has been subjected to an enforced disappearance and may have been targeted because of his human rights work documenting the impact of the Tigray conflict between 2020-2022 including human rights violations.

I urge you to ensure a prompt and effective investigation into his disappearance and whereabouts. If Filmon is being held by the authorities, I call on you to ensure his immediate release.

Yours sincerely,
